

Drawing Essentials Drawing Classes

with Bryan LaFaye

Thursdays, July 11, 18 & 25 , 2013

Open for beginners as well as experienced artists, these classes will introduce and strengthen drawing skills. EACH WEEK IS A DIFFERENT ARTISTIC CHALLENGE—CLASSES SO POPULAR HE'S BEEN EXTENDED FOR A 3RD SESSION!

Lafayette based artist Bryan Lafaye is a former director of the University Art Museum at the University of Louisiana, Lafayette. He holds a Master of Fine Arts degree from Clemson University, and has been involved in exhibitions and art related projects from the East Coast to Hawaii and as far away as the Baltic country of Estonia. His work reflects the spirit of the natural world found in his native Louisiana.

Classes will be held at the Lafayette Art Association, 1008 East St. Mary Blvd on three consecutive Thursdays from 5:00 to 7:00. Drawing together in the late afternoon is a great way to relax after a day's efforts. Students will receive individual attention as they work with Bryan at their own level of comfort. Materials list to be supplied to participants.

Workshop fees are $105 for members and $130 for non-members. $45./class for drop-ins.

A 50% non-refundable deposit will hold your spot for this 3-day class grouping.
